

1 Peter 1:1-2

Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to those who reside as strangers, scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, who are chosen according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, by the sanctifying work of the Spirit, to obey Jesus Christ and be sprinkled with His blood: May grace and peace be multiplied to you.

Peter is saying this cause of two main reasons:

1. There are people who say they saved who ain't living saved.
2. There are people who live saved who discover they don't fit in.

Too many people in the name of God have tried think, rationalize and become like the world.

Cause you weren't called to be _____;
you were called to be _____!

1 Peter 1:3-9

Praise the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. According to His great mercy, He has given us a new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead and into an inheritance that is imperishable, uncorrupted, and unfading, kept in heaven for you. You are being protected by God's power through faith for a salvation that is ready to be revealed in the last time. You rejoice in this, though now for a short time you have had to struggle in various trials so that the genuineness of your faith – more valuable than gold, which perishes though refined by fire – may result in praise, glory, and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ. You love Him, though you have not seen Him. And though not seeing Him now, you believe Him and rejoice with inexpressible and glorious joy, because you are receiving the goal of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

_____ isn't meant to _____ your faith
but to _____ your faith.

Your present trial, if you go through it right, will bring God glory in the life _____.

Trials aren't meant to _____ you, they're meant to _____ you.
