

Dinner with Jesus

PART 2 "Glory in the Ordinary"

John 2:1-11

On the third day there was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus also was invited to the wedding with his disciples. When the wine ran out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what does this have to do with me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." Now there were six stone water jars there for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to the servants, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. And he said to them, "Now draw some out and take it to the master of the feast." So they took it. When the master of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the master of the feast called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and when people have drunk freely, then the poor wine. But you have kept the good wine until now." This, the first of his signs, Jesus did at Cana in Galilee, and manifested his glory. And his disciples believed in him.

Jesus saw value in interacting with people.

*Do you intentionally make time to spend with others,
and when you do, do you remain open to the leading of the Spirit?*

Mary saw a practical need and knew Jesus could do something about it.

*When is the last time you have opened your heart up to Jesus,
and asked him for help with the big and little things in your life?*

*When He doesn't answer how or when you expect,
do you still anticipate He is working?*

Jesus included the servants, those going about their daily jobs, to be part of His miracle. He asked them to do something, without explanation, and they did it.

When is the last time you have asked God to use you in your daily life? While at work, at school, at the Grocery Store, in a restaurant?

Dinner with Jesus

PART 2 "Glory in the Ordinary"

John 2:1-11

On the third day there was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus also was invited to the wedding with his disciples. When the wine ran out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what does this have to do with me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." Now there were six stone water jars there for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to the servants, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. And he said to them, "Now draw some out and take it to the master of the feast." So they took it. When the master of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the master of the feast called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and when people have drunk freely, then the poor wine. But you have kept the good wine until now." This, the first of his signs, Jesus did at Cana in Galilee, and manifested his glory. And his disciples believed in him.

Jesus saw value in interacting with people.

*Do you intentionally make time to spend with others,
and when you do, do you remain open to the leading of the Spirit?*

Mary saw a practical need and knew Jesus could do something about it.

*When is the last time you have opened your heart up to Jesus,
and asked him for help with the big and little things in your life?*

*When He doesn't answer how or when you expect,
do you still anticipate He is working?*

Jesus included the servants, those going about their daily jobs, to be part of His miracle. He asked them to do something, without explanation, and they did it.

*When is the last time you have asked God to use you
in your daily life? While at work, at school, at the Grocery Store, in a restaurant?*

The disciples, who had already been called out by Jesus, started following him, witnessed his baptism, and knew him, witnessed this miracle- this glory that took place in the ordinary, and they believed in Him as a result.

Have you had an experience with Jesus in your ordinary life that has led you to believe in Him?

The disciples, who had already been called out by Jesus, started following him, witnessed his baptism, and knew him, witnessed this miracle- this glory that took place in the ordinary, and they believed in Him as a result.

Have you had an experience with Jesus in your ordinary life that has led you to believe in Him?